My delight is found in all your laws, and I won't forget to walk in your words.

The Abundant Life

Let me be your servant, walk in abundance of life, that I may always live to obey your truth.

Open my eyes to see the miracle-wonders hidden in your Word!

My life on earth is so brief, so tutor me in the ways of your wisdom.

I am continually consumed by these irresistible longings, these cravings to obey your every commandment!

Your displeasure rests with those who are arrogant, who think they know everything; you rebuke the rebellious who refuse your laws.

Don't let them mock and scorn me for obeying you.

For even if the princes and my leaders choose to criticize me, I'll continue to serve you and walk in your plans for my life.

Your commandments are my counselors; your Word is my light and delight!

Revived by the Word

Lord, I'm fading away. I'm discouraged and lying in the dust; revive me by your Word, just like you promised you would!

I've poured out my life before you,
